AMENDMENT 1

Brings politics into local school board elections by making them partisan. Nullifies part of a 1998 amendment passed by 64% of Florida voters that ensures school board races are nonpartisan. Creates closed party primaries that take away the ability for millions of Floridians to vote in school board elections.

AMENDMENT 2

VOTE NO: Florida Bar Animal Law Section, Sierra Club Florida, National Council of Jewish Women, Humane Society of the United States, Florida NOW, Florida For All

AMENDMENT 3

Legalizes recreational use of marijuana for adults 21 or older, providing access to safe, regulated marijuana products. Removes criminal penalties for adults 21 and up for simple possession of marijuana in small quantities.

AMENDMENT 4

Ensures that Floridians, not politicians, are able to decide what is best for their own lives and bodies by limiting government interference with abortion. Overturns Florida's abortion ban, which outlaws abortion before many women even realize they are pregnant and provides no real exceptions for rape or the health of the patient.

VOTE YES: League of Women Voters of Florida, Florida NOW, SEIU Florida, Sierra Club Florida, Florida Rising, NAACP Florida State Conference, Equality Florida, FLIC Votes, Florida Alliance of Planned Parenthood Affiliates, Alianza for Progress, Mi Familia en Acción, National Council of Jewish Women, Equal Ground, Faith in Public Life, Latina Institute Florida, Florida For All, ACLU Florida

Creates an annual inflation adjustment on the amount that is tax-exempt from a homeowner's primary residence homestead exemption, reducing revenue for local communities by an estimated $111 million annually by 2029 for services like public safety workers, parks, and sanitation collection.

VOTE NO: NAACP Florida State Conference, Florida NOW, Florida For All

AMENDMENT 6

Gives more political power to corporations and wealthy individuals and candidates by repealing the public financing option available for state candidate campaigns passed by voters in 1998.

VOTE NO: League of Women Voters of Florida, Common Cause Florida, Florida NOW, NAACP Florida State Conference, Equal Ground, SEIU Florida
