

Affirmative Defenses Research Guide

Overview

This research guide contains information and resources related to affirmative defenses. According to Black's Law Dictionary, an "affirmative defense" is "a defendant's assertion of facts and arguments that, if true, will defeat the plaintiff's or prosecution's claim, even if all the allegations in the complaint are true." There are a variety of affirmative defenses across different legal issues. They can apply to both criminal and civil cases. The resources listed below are not exhaustive and may not include the most up-to-date information. It is for information purposes only and should not be construed as legal advice or act as the substitute for legal counsel.
